By Carol Yao
Room 001
The Beaver

By Glenn Ackerman

The Beaver

By Jean-Joseph Cole
Space Epic

UA News

HELO!

WHY NOT VISIT THE MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS DURING IAP?!

The Museum of Fine Arts, Boston is a world-class institution with a diverse collection of art from around the globe. This year, the Museum is celebrating its 150th anniversary with a series of special exhibitions and events. The Museum is located at 465 Huntington Avenue in Boston, Massachusetts.

Admission is free for all visitors on Saturdays and Sundays, or you can purchase a Museum membership for a year of unlimited visits. For more information, please visit the Museum's website at www.mfa.org.

If you are interested in learning more about art and culture, be sure to check out the Museum of Fine Arts during IAP. It is a great opportunity to explore the world of art and enjoy the natural beauty of the city of Boston.

Thank you for reading UA News. We hope you have a great day!