Scholarships

The Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs (MSFWC) is sponsoring an annual graduate study scholarship program for students in the fields of business and dentistry. Applicants must maintain official residence in Massachusetts for at least five years to be considered and obtain a letter of endorsement from a local MSFWC club president. Two scholarships of $2,500 each will be offered. For more information, contact Associate Director Jeanne Richard, 3-136, x-4669. Deadline is March 1.

Internships

New York City Urban Fellows Program — The Summer Management Intern Program, New York, 20 seniors, recent grads, and grad students to work full-time, summer. $6,000 tax-free stipend. The Summer Management Intern Program for upper classmen and recent grads to work in city government full-time from mid-June until mid-August. Must have a permanent address in New York City. Contact Joanne Briggs, 12-170, x-4737.

Lexington Town Manager's Office. Lexington, MA, is seeking interns for next semester. Students with a background in either international development/economics and political science. Unpaid but funding through scholarships or sponsorships is possible. Contact Joanne Briggs, 12-170, x-4737.

Lexington Town Manager's Office. Lexington, MA, is seeking to employ one or two public administrators interns during the summer; part-time available during the school year. Junior or senior, completed course work in Management and/or Public Administration, and public speaking and mathematical abilities. Contact Joanne Briggs, 12-170, x-4737.

The College School Teacher Intern Program, New York, NY, gives graduates an opportunity to gain supervised teaching experience. Limited to graduates and one full academic year. $5,000 stipend. March 1 deadline. Contact Joanne Briggs, 12-170, x-4737.

Boston's Metropolitan Area Planning Council is seeking two temporary planner trainee positions for graduate or upper-level undergraduate students with good communication skills. Courses required in planning, geography, public administration, and related areas. Stipend available, 15-20 hours/week. Apply immediately for Spring semester. Contact Joanne Briggs, 12-170, x-4737.

The small technical publishing firm of GML Information Services of Lexington, MA, is seeking a sophomore or junior for full or part-time during the spring term or summer. Must be interested in learning about the computer industry; duties including technical writing and research. Hours and salary open. Contact Joanne Briggs, 12-170, x-4737.

Off Campus

Interested in children? Teenagers? Creative education? The Cambridge School Volunteers, Inc. needs you as a tutor, an aide, a big sister or big brother (from kindergarten through high school, gain valuable experience while learning about and making a contribution to the community. For more information, call 498-9218.

Draft and Registration Counseling is offered free by Boston Alliance Against Registration and the Draft (BAARD) for young men who have or have not registered with the Selective Service. Draft Information Nips are held every Thursday at 7:30 pm at 466 Green Street, Cambridge. For info, call 482-4170.

A French Conversation Group meets every Tuesday from 12 to 2pm at the Alliance Francaise, 118 Milk Street, Boston. Bring your lunch and chat in French. For more info, call 482-4170.

The Job Career Planning and Placement Office has information about summer and full-time internships, both paid and unpaid. For more information and applications, see Sandy Person, 12-170, x-4735. Some internships available are listed below.

The Undergraduate Research Opportunities Program has internships and programs available for summer and non-summer. These include internship/cooperative programs in the School of Engineering, various other academic programs, the Industrial Liaison Program and the Community Service Fund. For more information contact Clifford Trudell at 3-5499.

Notice to all Graduate Research Assistants. Teaching Assistants: The Bursar's Office has revised the pay period schedule of term charges, effective this month. Starting with the January, 1982, paycheck, the office will be taking a deduction of 1/9 of the total term charges, and a uniform deduction of 2/9 will be taken in February, March, April, and May. Students with any questions or problems should contact the Bursars Office.

Course VI sophomores interested in the VI-A Program should attend the orientation lecture Wednesday, February 3, at 3pm in 1024.

The Experimental Study Group (ESG), an academic program for freshmen interested in learning core subjects through small seminars and tutorials, has openings for the spring term. Contact Holly Sweet at 3-1778 or stop by Room 24-422 for more info.

February degree candidates must schedule appointments for exit Interviews with the Student Loan Office. These interviews are scheduled by the US Department of Education and are required by the Institute to maintain good standing on the degree list. The notice also serves to activate the repayment status and tactics of the loans. Contact the Student Loan Office, E19-225, x-4087. with any questions.