IRWIN SIZER AWARD

Nominations are being sought for the IRWIN SIZER AWARD, established by the Graduate Student Council in 1975 to honor Irwin Sizer, former Dean of the Graduate School from 1967 to 1975, presently the President of the Health Science Fund and Consultant to the Resource Development Office. The award is presented for the "most significant improvement to MIT education," to encourage innovations and excellence in MIT academic programs. The recipient of this award, selected by a committee of the Graduate Student Council in closed session, will receive a certificate and cash award of $200. Any person or group of students involved in a student activity and making a substantial time commitment, we urge you to consider trying for one of the positions mentioned above. Nominations may be made by letter, should include references and/or supporting material, and may be submitted to Janice Goldman no later than April 16, 1982.

Previous awards have been given to the leaders of the Writing Program (1975), Independent Activities Program (1976), Undergraduate Research Opportunities Program (1977), the Innovation Center at Sloan (1978), Office of Minority Education (1979), and the HUD Minority Intern Program (1980).
