ERA need argued
state legislators are preventing its passage. She cited polls showing 80 percent of Iowa voters support the ERA. Neither state has approved the amendment.
ERA has been defeated in many state referendums. Schaffir countered.
Existing employment, tax and social security laws are sex-neutral, she said. Sex-discriminates, sororities, and single-sex dormitories are protected under Title IX, she added. These would be jeopardized by the passage of the Equal Rights Amendment.
ERA would subject women to the same de-fits laws as men, she said. Present legal protections for women are being eroded by the Reagan Administration, contended DaCrow.
An organization calling itself "Ladies Against Women" held a demonstration outside Krege Auditorium. Protesters carried placards proclaiming, "Sperm are people too," "My home is his castle," and "Repeal the law of evolution." Members of the group heckled Schaffir during the debate, but were shouted down by the rest of the audience.
