The national Harry S. Truman Scholarship Award competition is open to current sophomores in on a career in the public service. The award is $3000 a year for the junior and senior year and for up to two years of graduate school. Two MIT students will be nominated for the competition by the President of the Institution. Any student wishing to be considered should contact Dr. Louis Menard III, Room 3-234, extens. 3-752 before October 15, 1982.

Add date is Friday, October 15: the Registrar's Office will not accept add/deep cards without all of the necessary signatures. The Undergraduate Academic Support Office, 7-103, urges students to obtain all signatures before fore deadlines to avoid petitioning the CAP for approval of a late change. If your advisor is unavailable, contact your under-graduate officer or Department headquarters.

The Bursar's Office student ac-counts hours are 9 am to 6 pm. Students who wish to see their accounts or to make a loan refund must call 253-4132 for an appointment. Emergency Dean's Office will be held today. Members of the Massachusetts congressional delegation and Randall Forsberg, the Arms Control Association's representative to the Middle East and South Africa, are looking forward to your pictures back the same day, and they'll look their very best! Bring in your next roll of color print film to PHOTOQUICK/CAMBRIDGE by 10 AM. You'll get

Evans & Sutherland is the world's leader in interactive computer graphics.

Evans & Sutherland, the world's leader in interactive computer graphics systems, is seeking qualified electrical engineering and computer science graduates who are seeking a challenging work environment with excellent career opportunities.

Position is available in electrical design, software design, scientific programming, systems programming, mechanical CAD/CAM, high speed analog design, and high speed analog processing. Entry level engineers join design teams with full engineering responsibilities for particular projects.

Evans & Sutherland is an Equal Opportunity Employer