Give control to Pentagon

The homosexual living in generally-friendly Boston/ Cambridge has become dangerously someplace. It is often the media who ded-to the prospects of new mility citizens. Then The Tech is to be thanked for publishing

September 28, Feedback section

letter from "Dana withheld by request" complaining of an ad-

temnent in the September 17

issue for the Hotchkiss College

80.

Frankly, however, it reads more like a lit of sour grapes to me. And it’s a test of quoted (though I don’t know how to say it) but I can’t do it without you.

David C. Van Hoy

SCEP finds errors

The Tech editor

There were several inaccuracies in Jerri-Lynn Scottfield’s column “Fresh need pass[l]” (The Tech, Friday, September 24) that bear correction and clarification.

These statements deal directly with the published version of the Committee on Educational Pol-icy’s (CEP’s) Recommendations on the Vietnam War.

The need for better instruction/ student/adviser coordination has been well-established. According to a study conducted by the Undergraduate Academic Support Office, only a very small percentage of freshmen receive evaluation forms back at the end of the spring term.

The current narrative forms are not being replaced; they are being augmented. The proposed check-able boxes are mandatory only at the end of fall term, and the use of the narrative mode of eval-in the form of the Fall term.

We encourage all students to retypew the proposal, even the optional this form. Anyone who has questions or comments, please contact any CEP member. (If you don’t know one

So contact Steven Barber ’84 at x-

6121.)

Steven Barber ’84

Steve Isakovich ’83

James Taylor ’83

Members, Committee on Educational Policy.

UA News

Lots of Student criticism misplayed

The general assembly, the sole legiti-mate form of student government, will meet tomorrow, October 5, in room 10-250 (just like the faculty). We have lots of important business to take care of in this area should be there. If you think you are a rep or you want to become a rep, ask your house president. For more information, call x-2846 or walk over to Room 401 of the Student Center.

But Seriously, folks...

There will be a CPR course this weekend, Thursday, Oct. 7. The CPR sessions will be from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. in Room 491 of the Student Center. Please pre-enroll by calling x-3786.

The fine people who are trying to save lives are trying to give us a course to certify CPR instructors. If you are interested in becoming an instructor, please call x-3786 or write to CPR Instructors Course c/o Alpha Phi Omega

W20-415

Dull week, eh?

If any of you h houres would to submit anything to the UA News, call x-2846 or send the item to W20-401. We have had to keep this column ungro over the past year, but we can’t do it without you.