The Mexican-American intramural football team, The Mexican Express, in action this weekend.

Sports Update

Baseball — After eight straight wins, the team's record drops to 8-2 with a pair of losses, Friday 8-3 to Bentley and Saturday 4-2 to Brandeis.

Men's Crew — At the annual Textile River Regatta in Lowell Sunday, the eight-man varsity squad finished second, 1.4 seconds behind Boston University. In the four-man event, however, MIT did not fare as well, coming in fourth behind Coast Guard’s “A” and “B” boats and Holy Cross.

Men's Cross Country — Another close loss, this time 26-29 to Lowell Saturday dropped the men's record to 1-3 on the year.

Women's Cross Country — With their finest showing in two years of varsity competition, the women defeated all five of the other teams participating in a meet held at Franklin Field Saturday. The scores were MIT 71, Lowell 73, Tufts 80, Brandeis and Keane State 96, and Coast Guard 105. The top finisher for the Engineers was Sarah de Leon '83, who finished fourth overall with a time of 18:32.

Field Hockey — A 6-0 loss at Clark Saturday dropped the team's record to 3-2 on the year.

Women's Sailing — Competing in the Danmark Trophy at the Coast Guard Academy Sunday, the men's team finished ninth in the seventeen-team field, beating Yale, Brown, and Dartmouth, among others. Leading the way was captain Bruce Klein '83, who finished sixth in the “A” division.

Women's Sailing — Sunday, MIT handed Yale New England Inter-collegiate Single-handed Championships in which team co-captain Michelle Buglisi '84 finished fifteenth out of thirty-seven.

Women's Tennis — The women defeated Emmanuel College 6-1, winning their second match in a row.

Saturday, the team competed in the Greater Boston Tournament and finished seventh in the seventeen-team field.

Women's Volleyball — A 3-2 win over Eastern Nazarene Saturday snapped the team's record to 10-1, a record equal to that of last year's team at this point in the season.

Water Polo — MIT defeated Army 14-11 in the MIT Invitational, raising their record to 3-2 on the year.

Men's Soccer — The Engineers went all out for one big effort, the Engineers' overtime period, MIT's defense remaining impregnable, completely shutting out Bates' offense. With 4:24 remaining, the Engineers went all out for one big push on Bates' goal. Fullback Doss passed the ball to Malcolm Duke '83, who slipped by the defense and scored the winning goal for MIT.

Field Hockey — Comming on the team's second victory of the season, Coach Walter Almen said: "In the first half, we didn't play that well. But I guess we woke up in the second half and played better soccer. Our defense was good, even though we didn't capitalize on some good scoring opportunities. If we hadn't, I think we could have won during regulation time."

Women's Cross Country — With Army 14-11 in the MIT Invitational, their finest showing in two years of varsity competition, the women finished fourth overall with a .78, Tufts 80, Brandeis and Keane State 96, and Coast Guard 105.

Women's Tennis — The women defeated Emmanuel College 6-1, winning their second match in a row.

Women's Volleyball — A 3-2 win over Eastern Nazarene Saturday snapped the team's record to 10-1, a record equal to that of last year's team at this point in the season.

Water Polo — MIT defeated Army 14-11 in the MIT Invitational, raising their record to 3-2 on the year.

Men's Soccer — The Engineers went all out for one big effort, the Engineers' overtime period, MIT's defense remaining impregnable, completely shutting out Bates' offense. With 4:24 remaining, the Engineers went all out for one big push on Bates' goal. Fullback Doss passed the ball to Malcolm Duke '83, who slipped by the defense and scored the winning goal for MIT.

Field Hockey — Comming on the team's second victory of the season, Coach Walter Almen said: "In the first half, we didn't play that well. But I guess we woke up in the second half and played better soccer. Our defense was good, even though we didn't capitalize on some good scoring opportunities. If we hadn't, I think we could have won during regulation time."

Women's Cross Country — With Army 14-11 in the MIT Invitational, their finest showing in two years of varsity competition, the women finished fourth overall with a .78, Tufts 80, Brandeis and Keane State 96, and Coast Guard 105.

Women's Tennis — The women defeated Emmanuel College 6-1, winning their second match in a row.

Women's Volleyball — A 3-2 win over Eastern Nazarene Saturday snapped the team's record to 10-1, a record equal to that of last year's team at this point in the season.

Water Polo — MIT defeated Army 14-11 in the MIT Invitational, raising their record to 3-2 on the year.

Men's Soccer — The Engineers went all out for one big effort, the Engineers' overtime period, MIT's defense remaining impregnable, completely shutting out Bates' offense. With 4:24 remaining, the Engineers went all out for one big push on Bates' goal. Fullback Doss passed the ball to Malcolm Duke '83, who slipped by the defense and scored the winning goal for MIT.

Field Hockey — Comming on the team's second victory of the season, Coach Walter Almen said: "In the first half, we didn't play that well. But I guess we woke up in the second half and played better soccer. Our defense was good, even though we didn't capitalize on some good scoring opportunities. If we hadn't, I think we could have won during regulation time."

Women's Cross Country — With Army 14-11 in the MIT Invitational, their finest showing in two years of varsity competition, the women finished fourth overall with a .78, Tufts 80, Brandeis and Keane State 96, and Coast Guard 105.

Women's Tennis — The women defeated Emmanuel College 6-1, winning their second match in a row.

Women's Volleyball — A 3-2 win over Eastern Nazarene Saturday snapped the team's record to 10-1, a record equal to that of last year's team at this point in the season.

Water Polo — MIT defeated Army 14-11 in the MIT Invitational, raising their record to 3-2 on the year.

Men's Soccer — The Engineers went all out for one big effort, the Engineers' overtime period, MIT's defense remaining impregnable, completely shutting out Bates' offense. With 4:24 remaining, the Engineers went all out for one big push on Bates' goal. Fullback Doss passed the ball to Malcolm Duke '83, who slipped by the defense and scored the winning goal for MIT.

Field Hockey — Comming on the team's second victory of the season, Coach Walter Almen said: "In the first half, we didn't play that well. But I guess we woke up in the second half and played better soccer. Our defense was good, even though we didn't capitalize on some good scoring opportunities. If we hadn't, I think we could have won during regulation time."

Women's Cross Country — With Army 14-11 in the MIT Invitational, their finest showing in two years of varsity competition, the women finished fourth overall with a .78, Tufts 80, Brandeis and Keane State 96, and Coast Guard 105.

Women's Tennis — The women defeated Emmanuel College 6-1, winning their second match in a row.

Women's Volleyball — A 3-2 win over Eastern Nazarene Saturday snapped the team's record to 10-1, a record equal to that of last year's team at this point in the season.

Water Polo — MIT defeated Army 14-11 in the MIT Invitational, raising their record to 3-2 on the year.

Men's Soccer — The Engineers went all out for one big effort, the Engineers' overtime period, MIT's defense remaining im-