Your talent for math could get you onto Aetna's fast track

With your numbers-know-how, you have a lot of options. You could earn your daily bread in a think-tank. Program computers. Or maybe grad school's on your mind.

Consider another option. Join our Actuarial Student Program. The experience, expertise and exposure you'll get may slip you onto the fast track to advancement at Aetna. (It's happened to people who began with skills much like your own!)

If you can use your mathematical aptitude to creatively solve complex problems (you don't have to be a math major) and yearn for something big, you just might have undiscovered corner-office potential.

Find out more at a reception to be held for those of you who want to explore your options. Underclassmen are welcome.

Date: Wednesday, November 10
Place: Harvard Faculty Club
20 Quincy Street, Cambridge
Time: 7-9 p.m.

For more information, please contact Nancy Leach, Corporate Actuarial, Aetna Life & Casualty, 151 Farmington Avenue, Hartford, CT 06116.
