place. The Engineers finished behind Brandeis, Colby, and Bates. The team's final score of 110 points, however, put the runners ahead of the teams from Southeastern Massachusetts (182), Williams (190), Middlebury (232), Fitchburg State (236), Coast Guard (238), and Westfield State (291).

Vball in NCAA, EAIW

Athletes, the Engineers were originally going to turn down the EAIW bid because of the conflict. Albany, however, proposed the schedule change to allow participation in both tournaments. This will be the first time MIT has ever hosted an NCAA national championship game. The contest will be held in DuPoint at 7:30pm.

GRAB 2000 BUCKS IF YOU CAN ACE THIS EXAM!

Twenty years ago, who'd have thought you could carry a roomful of computers in your pocket? Make music with numbers? Or push pictures through a glass thread?

Yet today, it's just as difficult to predict what another 20 years will bring. So we're looking up to some pretty well qualified individuals. People like you.

We invite you to participate in the Honeywell Futurist Awards Competition. Predict the most significant technological developments in the year 2000 and how they'll affect our environment, economy and social structure. A panel of expert judges will select the ten winners, and Honeywell will give each of those talented students $2000!

And there's a bonus! Those winners with a declared major in electrical engineering, computer engineering, mechanical engineering or computer science will be offered Honeywell Summer Internships with salary grants!
