Haddad denies role in massacre — Testifying before the Israeli panel investigating the September massacres in the Shatila and Sabra refugee camps, Lebanese Christian militia leader Maj. Saad Haddad denied the many reports that his men took part in the massacre. "People in peace, they believe anything," Haddad told the three-man tribunal. "Some of them said, 'We see Major Haddad himself inside the camp.' What kind of story? Their imagination."

Weather
Nothing great — Today and tomorrow will be cloudy, with occasional drizzle, highs of about 50 degrees, and a steady easterly breeze.

Students should participate in OSDA's evaluations of UA employees. Brown believes "We're the best qualified to judge," he said.
The position will be evaluated "The position will be evaluated the same way its any other OSDA employees. Immernian said. UA employees are MIT employees and are subject to all the benefits and evaluations of any other MIT employee, he added.
"The main thing the OSDA wants is to ensure that the Institute's funds can be used effective." Immernian said. Salaries for UA employees are included in its budget the UA receives from the Dean's Office.
OSDA employee selection involves students, Immernian claimed. "Everybody in the Dean's Office with the exception of support staff was hired with students input."
The current plan for hiring a new UA accountant calls for a lot of abuse from applicants, to be chosen jointly by the Finance Board and the OSDA, according to Brown. The final choice will then be made by the Dean for Student Affairs Shirley M.
McKee, said Immernian.
"We would like the final hiring to be a unanimous decision of the OSDA, Finance Board, and the UA," Brown said.
