Basketball squads find winning ways
By Martin Dickau
Both the men's and women's basketball teams continued to shake off their earlier slumps last week, the women scoring two consecutive victories to go to 5-4, while the men won two of three, upping their record to 4-7.

After a loss at Coast Guard early last week, the women edged out visiting Amherst 59-57 Wednesday. Cindy Robinson '84 led the Engineers with 17 points. Co-captain Joyce Kelly '83 had 16, and Julie Koster '85 had 10.

The squad, riding high after its win, ramped over Babson in Rockwell Cage Saturday 62-46. Koster paced MIT with 12 re- bounds and a career-high 19 points. Kelly chipped in with 14, and co-captain Terry Feis '84 dumped in 11. The key to the game was the Engineers' defense holding Babson's Judy Pearson, who had been averaging well over 20 points per game, to only seventeen.

A 63-46 loss at Bowdoin last Tuesday snapped the men's modest two-game winning streak, but the Engineers got right back on track, defeating visiting Wesleyan 81-76 Thursday. Co-captain Mark Branch '83 led the attack with a career-high 32 points, in- cluding an MIT-record 20 for 20 from the free throw line. The team's other co-captain, Robert Joseph '83, had 16 points.

The squad continued its win- ning style Saturday, thrashing host Coast Guard 51-38. The En- gineers allowed the Cadets only five points in the first ten minutes of the game. The MIT defense also held all of the opposing players to under ten points, while Mark Johnson '84 and Bud Tad- dix '85 each had twelve for the visitors.

Both teams will be at home to- morrow for a basketball double- header. The women will lead off at 5:30pm against Conn. College, and the men will follow at 7:30 against Curry.
