West Germany retains Kohl in top spot — Chancellor Helmut Kohl and his conservative Christian Democrats defeated the liberal Social Democrats by the largest margin since 1961 in national elections in West Germany Sunday. The Kohl coalition supports the Reagan administration plan to deploy medium range Pershing II and cruise missiles in Germany if the Soviet Union does not accept Reagan's "zero option" plan to eliminate intermediate range nuclear weapons from Europe. The Christian Democrats received 48.8 percent of the ballots cast, gaining 18 seats for a total of 244 representatives in the 498-member Bundestag, the lower house of the West German parliament. The Social Democrats garnered 38.2 percent of the vote, losing 25 seats for a new total of 193 seats. The Free Democratic Party, the junior party in the Kohl government, took 34 seats with 6.9 percent of the popular vote, ensuring the coalition a solid majority.

The four-year-old radical Green Party, which demands West Germany's withdrawal from NATO and expulsion of American military personnel, gained representation in parliament for the first time, receiving 5.6 percent of the vote to get 27 seats in the house.

Labor party wins Australian elections — The Australian Labor party, led by Robert Hawke, overwhelmingly defeated Malcolm Fraser's conservative government in elections Friday. The Labor party gained a 23-vote majority in the 125-member lower house of Parliament. Hawke, a former union leader, is expected to pursue a more independent course in foreign policy than did Fraser, but also to maintain close relations with the United States.

More Moslems massacred in India — Native Hindus killed 500 Bengali Moslems during a raid on a Moslem village on Oppariyia Island, India. The Hindus destroyed the village because the government ignored demands to expel four million Bengali immigrants. The massacre raised the total number of Moslems killed since Feb. 1 to more than 4000.
