ing for member at large of the class council.

Gregory on US society thinks the whole space program was created in a movie studio to provide entertainment for the citizens of this country. There are “no pictures of stars” in the about taken for the moon, Gregory said, giving this observation as proof of his claim.

Gregory also feels the government is powerless and engages in “voodoo tactics.” He noted the government was totally ineffectular to secure their release.

“In the initial count of the dis-ruled for class president.

Alka Jain ’86 was elected secretary of the class. Eric L. Clayberg ’86, running unopposed, took the spot of treasurer.

Gabielle Hecht ’86 and Lauren E. Singer ’86 defeated Jenifer E. Snopkowski ’86 in a close race for the chairmanship of the class social committee.

Toi A. Broodige ’86 was elected publicity/newsletter chairman for the class.

Though all the votes in these races will be recounted this weekend, Libby said, “I don’t think it will change anything.”
