Undergraduate Association vice president. The General Assembly must pass this motion again at its next meeting for it to take effect, because amendments to the UA Constitution must pass by a two-thirds majority at two consecutive meetings.

"Ex officio positions are important," declared Steven E. Barber '84, co-chairman of the UA Student Committee on Educational Policy. "They provide vital linkage between a general committee and the central positions. I strongly suspect this appointed member will not have as much access to the [UA president] as the [UA vice president]. I can't give my support to this motion."

The UA vice president might have neither the time nor the attention to be an active member of the Finance Board, said the amendment's sponsor, General Assembly Floor Leader Ira M. Setlak '84, co-chairman of the UA Student Assembly Committee on Educational Policy. "They provide vital linkage between a general committee and the central positions. A strongly suspect this appointed member will not have as much access to the [UA president] as the [UA vice president]. I can't give my support to this motion."
