Softball to join Emmanuel, Regis, Fitchburg in tourney

By Eric R. Fleming

The women's softball team has made it to the "Final Four". The Emmanuel College (EC) Class C softball tournament, which takes place on Briggs Field. The team currently sits at 7-1, pending yesterday's game with Emmanuel on Briggs Field.

Also selected to compete in the one-day, three-game tourney are Regis, Emmanuel, and Fitchburg State. Tech is seeded number one, and has the luxury of being the host team for the tournament. MIT, the defending champion, will play #4 Fitchburg State at 1pm, with #2 Regis squaring off against #3 Emmanuel at 1pm. The two winners go for the title at 3pm.

Last Friday's game:

MIT's nine used a 19-hit attack and solid two-hit pitching by Carolyn St. Jean to beat Merrimack in North Andover 14-0. Centerfielder Liz Anderson '84 had her best outing of the season, going three-for-four with a triple, scoring three times and knocking Merrimack out in the third. Other three-hit performers included Jeanne Rismond '84, Grace Saccardo '86, and Stacy Thompson '86.
