Editorials, marked as such and printed in a distinctive format, represent the official opinion of The Tech. They are written by the Editorial Board, which consists of the chairman, editor in chief, managing editor, executive editor, and news editors. Columns are usually written by members of The Tech staff and represent the opinion of the author, and not necessarily that of the newspaper. Letters to the Editor are written by members of the MIT community and represent the opinion of the writer. All submissions should be typed, double spaced, on a 57-character line and bear the authors' signatures. Unsigned letters will not be printed, but authors' names may be withheld upon request. The Tech reserves the right to edit or condense all letters.
