Soviet foreign minister condones plane shooting. — As a conference of 35 foreign ministers, Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko said the United States was responsible for Soviet shooting of the Korean passenger airplane on September 1. "The borders of the Soviet Union are sacred," Gromyko said, stressing that future violators of these borders would "bear the full brunt of responsibility for it." Gromyko dis- missed Washington's version of the story as "slander" and "falsehood," contending that the plane was spying from withdrawal of all forces to sending in Marine reinforcements.

United States, France intensify efforts in Lebanon. — French and American warplanes began patroling Lebanon Tuesday for the first time in a year. The Lebanese government has requested additional peacekeeping forces to supplement the 5400 already there, and American officials are weighing options ranging from withdrawal of all forces to sending in Marine reinforcements.

Population growing fastest in Sun Belt. — Projections from the 1980 census indicate that California, Texas, and Florida will each have populations exceeding New York's by the year 2000, with California expected to be in first place at 30.6 million people. The population of the United States as a whole is expected to grow 18% to 267 million, during the same time.

Buyer of stolen Wyeths sentenced to prison. — Wealthy mushroom grower Guido Frezzo will be serving a five-year prison term and paying a fine of $20,000 for giving two burglars $2,000 and a 1957 Chevrolet in exchange for three paintings by American artist Andrew Wyeth. The paintings were among fifteen stolen over a year ago from Wyeth's Pennsylvania estate, not far from the 52 year-old Frezzo's home.

Bellotti rejects rules referendum. — Francis X. Bellotti, attorney general of Massachusetts, removed a referendum question from the 1984 ballot that would have let Massachusetts voters change the rules of the state legislature, including the practice of awarding extra pay to committee chairmen and other leaders. Bellotti, who faces a court battle with the bill's sponsors, the Coalition for Legislative Reform, justified his decision by pointing out that the question is not a law or constitutional amendment, but "an attempt to provide rules of procedure."

Weather

Weekend looks to be a scorcher. — Today the weather will be sunny, high between 82 and 86 degrees. Tonight will be clear with a low between 50 and 64 degrees. Outlook for the weekend is sunny and hot with highs in the 90s.
