MIT requires activities contribute to fund making and management responsibilities you have as an officer in the Navy.

The ground, as a Navy officer, you work with and supervise the most highly skilled aviation professionals. In the air, as part of the naval aviation team, you have about the most exciting job anyone can have.

It’s a uniquely rewarding job with pay to match. You start at $18,300 a year —more than the average corporation pays you just out of college. After four years, with regular Navy promotions and pay increases, your annual salary climbs to $81,100. That’s over and above a full package of benefits and privileges.
