Women's basketball wins; men now 0-7

By Martin Dickau
Co-captain Cindy Robinson '84 poured in a game-high 21 points Wednesday night, as the women's basketball team defeated Colby Sawyer College, 54-47, in Rockwell Cage. The victory raises the squad to 2-2 for the free-throw line. Louise Jordan '84 sank nine of her 11 shots, making her the only Engineer to reach double figures. The men's team continued its slide, losing 83-75 to Brandeis University Saturday and dropping to 0-3.

MIT had three players over ten percent from the floor during the second half, were plagued by their own mistakes, turning the ball over 29 times.

Nick Papadichoulou put in a 20-foot jump shot with two seconds left to lift visiting Hellenic College to a 53-54 victory in Wednesday's game. John Sharrandon '84 had given the Engineers a short-lived 54-53 lead with 14 seconds remaining. Helenic's Thanos Katsigianis came off the bench to lead all scorers with 20 points. Poole, with 17 points, again paced MIT. McElroy chipped in with 14.

The pair of losses ends the fall National Research Council (of the Engineers' season with the team at a dismal 0-7). The women's team will close the 1983 half of its season on Saturday, when it hosts the College of Our Lady of the Elms at 1 p.m. in Rockwell Cage.

Science & Politics: An IAP Project
An MIT student panel is being formed to review the conflicting acoustical analyses of a sound tape made in Dealey Plaza when President Kennedy was shot. (Experts commissioned by Congress found a conclusive indication of a shot from the grassy knoll, while a panel of the National Research Council rejected this finding).
