Wrestlers: best in 15 years

The wrestling team completed its best season in history last weekend with wins over Amherst, 35-13, and Bowdoin 31-27. The pair of victories give the Engineers a 4-3 record, breaking the 13-year-old mark for the most wins in a single season.

Trackmen play in Boston tourney
Patrice Perrin '85 placed third in the 35-pound weight throw with a personal best of 59 1.5" in Saturday's Greater Boston Championships hosted by Harvard. Gordon Mahan '85 finished third in the 1,000-yard run, and co-captain John Taylor '84 was fifth in the 440. The strong performance followed a 91-45 meet last week. Captain Mike Vard and Vermont in a triangular

Jumps to

Swim teams win
The women's swimming team continued its tear, defeating Wellesley 76-64 Monday in Alumni Pool. The win was the Engineers' fourth in a row after having suffered three straight losses at the start of the season. The men's team posted its record on 3-3 with a 75-38 victory over Southern Maine.

Squash men split
The squash team split a pair of matches last weekend, besting visiting Columbia 3-4 Saturday and losing 7-2 to Army Sunday. Dave Pope G and Albert Pluss '84 each won both of their matches as MIT's record moves to 7-8.

Quinnipiac dumps men's hockey
The men's hockey club dropped to 6-6 with a 7-5 loss to Division III Quinnipiac Saturday. The loss was the club's second in as many games.

Cagemen hit 2-13
The men's basketball team dropped an 80-70 decision to the visiting Suffolk Rams Wednesday for the squad's fourth straight loss after a pair of wins. Mike McElroy '87 lead the Engineers with 23 points and 9 rebounds. The loss brings MIT's record to 2-13 as the young team continues to struggle.

The team from the men's basketball team's UAP trip to Florida: Jan. 2 Indian National All-Stars 88, MIT 62 Jan. 3 White All-Stars 76, MIT 60 Jan. 4 Blue All-Stars 75, MIT 66 Jan. 5 White All-Stars 87, MIT 63 Jan. 6 MIT 58, Blue All-Stars 56 Jan. 7 Blue All-Stars 70, MIT 55 Jan. 9 MIT 68, Junior National All-Stars 56 Jan. 10 MIT 69, White All-Stars 68 Jan. 11 Delta All-Stars 69, MIT 60

NCAA: Altman is coach of the year
MIT coach Karyn Altman '78 has been named the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division III Women's Volleyball Coach-of-the-Year by the Collegiate Volleyball Coaches Association.