The National Trust for Historic Preservation, in association with the National Trust for Historic Preservation, prestigious nationally accredited historic properties, seeks highly motivated full-time historic preservation specialists or interns to carry out its mission. We need dynamic, energetic preservationists to make a difference.
Responsibilities include:
- Preserving historic structures
- Planning and implementing department's educational programs, act as a careercounselor, participate in development, and 3 years of directly applicable experience. We prefer an advanced degree related to organizational issues, and help employees at all levels adapt to change.
Helping the organization change means important recognition for their efforts and the ability to adjust to change. The next step in this important process is to help managers cope with problems and lead people to seek support in the workplace. To do more, we need diverse and articulate individuals
- Literally win it!
