Two plays for the price of none

On The Town On The Town

Wednesday, July 18

SCC presents Ringing Bell in Lobbld, starting at 9 p.m. or darker, whichever is later.

Thursday, July 19

The MIT Project for Student Summer Theater (PSTV) presents a New York-style play, Sam Shepard's The Unseen World and Mogey and Moe's Man: High Anxiety. 7 p.m. in Kresge Little Theater. See review this issue and review on page 8. Free and open to the public.

Friday, July 20

The Project for Student Summer Theater's double-bill. If, following the invitation from the inside, you won't settle for merely having your brain blown out, but would like to have them stretched out into a string of well-written California kid's pick bubble gum and then gently tweaked with a razor blade-they then become the second part of an unusually brilliant journey into the Little Theater. Megan Terry's Cahn Down Mother describes conflict in the three women must blend and define, and project.

Saturday, July 21

LSC presents Robin and Marian (7 p.m.) and The Wind and the Lion (9:30 p.m.) in 10-250. Admission $1.

Sunday, July 22

Summer Chamber Music at MIT continues tonight with a concert of works by Piazzolla, Britten and Hummel for English horn, karp, clarinet, piano, and string. In Kresge Main Auditorium at 8 p.m. 253-3210.

Tuesday, July 24

SCC presents The Sting at 7 p.m. or darker, whichever is later. Free.

Wednesday, July 25

Curtis Hall theatre company presents Wayne

Thursday, July 26

Castle Hill theatre company presents Wayne.

Saturday, July 28

Summer Chamber Music at MIT performs works by Bach and Handel for violin, oboe, and voice. At 8 p.m. in Kresge Main 253-3210

Saturday, July 29

Summer Chamber Music at MIT performs works by Haydn and others. At 8 p.m. in Kresge Main 253-3210.

---

NOTE:

Despite the Hoffman-Cutler films and the Repo Man, there are definitely analogies to Liquid Sky, Repo Man and Liquid Sky.

Two scenes from The Repo Man:

1. An agent of Interstellar DrifTERS, wearing a leather jacket and a bandana, has just been told by a police officer that he is being pursued by a group of giant spiders. He is shocked and says, "What? A spider?" The officer replies, "Yes." The agent says, "But I thought they were mythological creatures!"
The officer says, "No, they actually exist. And they're very real."

2. A group of young people are standing in front of a car dealer, looking at a car that is on display. One of them says, "Wow, this is really cool. I've never seen a car like this before." The other says, "Yeah, it's definitely a keeper." The first one adds, "I wonder what it would be like to drive one of these things." The second one responds, "I think it would be really exciting."