Teach an adult to read. If you have just 1 hour a week to spare, you can become a volunteer basic reading or ESL tutor and help adults learn to read. The Adult Literacy Resource Institute is offering tutor training from 6 to 9 pm at 625 Huntington Avenue, Administration Building, Room 210, to persons interested in volunteering at one of the 15 learning centers served by the institute. No prior teaching experience is required — just a high school diploma and a desire to help. Call Sandra Johnson-Smoake at 222-4895 or 734-196 ext. 112 for details.
