Tuesday, Oct. 2

All students and faculty are invited to the first meeting of the MIT Student Chapter of the International Cogeneration Society. The meeting will be held at 10:30 in the Walker Lounge, Bldg 66, 2nd floor. For more information call John Malloy or Prof. Richard Tabors at x3-8032.

Wednesday, Oct. 10

Both Israel Hospital's Quit Smoking Program helps participate in the art of controlling the urge through hypnosis, relaxation techniques, and the new use of nicotine gum. New groups begin today. For more information, call 735-4715.

Monthly meeting of Computer Professionals for Social Responsibility (CPSR) at 7:30 pm at MIT, 5-45 Technology Square, room 900. Discussion topic: "Transforming Concerns into Action.

Monday, Oct. 15

Teach an adult to read. If you have just 2 hours a week to spare you can become a volunteer tutoring reading or ESL tutor and help one of Boston's 190,000 illiterate adults learn to read. The Adult Literacy Resource Institute is offering tutoring training from 6 to 9 pm at 425 Huntington Avenue, Administration Building, Room 210 to persons interested in volunteering at one of the 15 learning centers serviced by the institute. No prior teaching experience is required - just a high school diploma and a desire to help. Call Sandra Johnston-Smucke at 352-4697 or 734-1960 ext. 112 for details.

Thursday, Oct. 11

The MIT International Shipping Club announces its first fall seminar: "In Search of a U.S. Maritime Policy" with speaker Mr. Richard Daschbach, former chairman of the Federal Maritime Commission. It will be a 30-50 minute lecture, followed by discussion and questions. The seminar will take place in the Sloan School of Management, 1-511 and begin at 4:15 pm. Everybody is welcome.

Thursday, Oct. 4

Gordon Dunnick, author of the science fiction novel Strategos and a Hugo and Nebula award finalist, will speak at 8 pm in Huntington Hall, Room 10-250. His reading will be entitled, "1944 and Counting..." Sponsored by the MIT Writing Program. Open to the public free of charge.

A seminar on Multichannel MDST: Wireless Cable?, with speakers Howard Klein, Contemporary Communications, and Peter Lentz, Information Architects, will be held in the Bush Room, 10-165. MIT. For further information, call 253-3144.

A career workshop on "Translating a Liberal Arts Degree Into a Job," sponsored by the Jewish Vocational Service, will be held from 7:30-9:30 pm at Commens Jewish Community Campus, 333 Nahanton Street, Newton Centre, MA. Fee is $15. To pre-register, please contact Meryl Glatt 723-2846 or Emily Kirschen 965-7940.

Friday, Oct. 5

A forum entitled "The Nisargadatta Memorial,", featuring Ken Norris, a Managua-based U.S. journalist, will be held at 7:30 pm at the Tower Auditorium, Mass. College of Art at Huntington Ave, near RCC, Boston. Sponsored by Frontline. $3 donation, child center open. For further information, call 247-4110.

Tuesday, Oct. 9

Both Israel Hospital's Mind-Body Group Program can teach you to manage your stress by using the relaxation response, awareness training, and exercise. New groups begin today. For more information, call 735-1134.