Sailing finishes second

The men's sailing team placed second among fifteen teams competing in the New England Division III Regatta hosted by Harvard University Saturday on the Charles River.

The following day the team split up to compete in three races. One squad traveled to New York, another sailed third of seventh in the Darmstadt Invitational hosted by Yale University. A third squad sailed for the Hood Trophy in a competition hosted by Tufts University. The event attracted some of the nation's top teams. The Engineers placed a respectable eighth in the field of fourteen, finishing just one point behind Harvard.

The remainder of the Engineers stayed at home to compete in the Boston College Invitationals, where it captured seventh place in the 14-school event. The team will be busy again this weekend, taking part in the Wood Trophy at Coast Guard Saturday, and the Greater Boston Championships and the Northern Series IV Sunday.

Soccer goes on scoring spree

The men's soccer team clubbed visiting Suffolk College, 4-0, Oct. 6, breaking a school record for goals scored in a single game. The previous record of nine goals had stood since 1924, when MIT scored nine goals against Northeastern.

Grant Schaffer '88 led the scoring binge for the Engineers with three goals. Lucas Morow '85 scored his first varsity goal and also contributed three assists.

Following the record-breaking game, the team dropped an away game to Harvard, 4-1. The Engineers quickly bounced back, defeating visiting Nichols, 2-1, Thursday. Josh Spiegelman '88 scored both goals in that contest, and goalie Mike Schoen '87 made 10 saves.

The team took its 3-5-1 record into yesterday afternoon's make-up game against Brandeis University in Steinbrenner Stadium. The Engineers will be on the road the rest of this week, taking on Tufts tomorrow and Colby Saturday. The squad returns home next Wednesday, when it hosts Stonehill at 3 p.m.

Men's tennis ends fall season at #1

The men's tennis team, under first-year coach Bob Baylis, ended its season with a 5-2 victory over host Clark College. The win gave the Engineers a 4-1 final record, capping one of the team's best full seasons in several years.

Women's tennis wins 9th match

The women's team won its ninth match in ten outings, beating visiting Salve Regina, 6-2, Friday. The team placed fourth out of six teams competing in the Massachusetts Association for Intercollegiate Athletics Conference Championships and the Northern Series IV Saturday.

For Women Class "B" Division Three Tournament at Brandeis over the weekend. The squad rates Rhode Island College at 3-5 prep and will be at Mount Holyoke College Friday and Saturday for the New England Division III championship.

Volleyball faces stiff competition

The women's volleyball team faced its toughest competition of the season when it traveled to Pennsylvania to compete in the Juniata Tournament. The Engineers compiled a 3-3 record against the top Division III teams on the East Coast.

MIT defeated Wilkes College, Pa.; Eastern Mennonite, Va.; and Cortland State, NY; while dropping matches to Nazareth College, Pa.; Brooklyn College, NY.; and Shippensburg University, Pa. The Engineers were more successful in dual match play, returning home to roll over Wellesley College in straight sets, 15-4, 15-6, 15-2.

The team also participated in the Springfield Invitational tournament this weekend. The Engineers placed fifth after matching one day to take first place in the weekend tournament.

MTI's victories came at the expense of the University of Hartford, 15-12, 15-4, Bradley, 15-4, 15-6; the University of Bridgeport, 15-4, 15-10; and SUNY Cortland again in the semifinal round, 15-12, 15-5; and host Springfield College, 15-8, 15-9 in the final.

The volleyball team will be in action again tonight at 7:45 pm against Harvard University in the Alumni Athletic Center. Admission is free.

Women first in Franklin Park race

The women's cross country team outran four other teams at Franklin Park Saturday to take first place in the meet. The Engineers finished 15-5 and 15-1.

MIT's victories came at the expense of the University of Hartford, 15-12, 15-4, Bradley, 15-4, 15-6; the University of Bridgeport, 15-4, 15-10; and SUNY Cortland again in the semifinal round, 15-12, 15-5; and host Springfield College, 15-8, 15-9 in the final.

The volleyball team will be in action again tonight at 7:45 pm against Harvard University in the Alumni Athletic Center. Admission is free.

Women first in Franklin Park race

The women's cross country team won its third consecutive meet at Franklin Park Saturday to take first place in the meet. The Engineers finished 15-5 and 15-1.

MIT's victories came at the expense of the University of Hartford, 15-12, 15-4, Bradley, 15-4, 15-6; the University of Bridgeport, 15-4, 15-10; and SUNY Cortland again in the semifinal round, 15-12, 15-5; and host Springfield College, 15-8, 15-9 in the final.

The volleyball team will be in action again tonight at 7:45 pm against Harvard University in the Alumni Athletic Center. Admission is free.

Women first in Franklin Park race

The women's cross country team won its third consecutive meet at Franklin Park Saturday to take first place in the meet. The Engineers finished 15-5 and 15-1.

MIT's victories came at the expense of the University of Hartford, 15-12, 15-4, Bradley, 15-4, 15-6; the University of Bridgeport, 15-4, 15-10; and SUNY Cortland again in the semifinal round, 15-12, 15-5; and host Springfield College, 15-8, 15-9 in the final.

The volleyball team will be in action again tonight at 7:45 pm against Harvard University in the Alumni Athletic Center. Admission is free.

Women first in Franklin Park race

The women's cross country team won its third consecutive meet at Franklin Park Saturday to take first place in the meet. The Engineers finished 15-5 and 15-1.

MIT's victories came at the expense of the University of Hartford, 15-12, 15-4, Bradley, 15-4, 15-6; the University of Bridgeport, 15-4, 15-10; and SUNY Cortland again in the semifinal round, 15-12, 15-5; and host Springfield College, 15-8, 15-9 in the final.

The volleyball team will be in action again tonight at 7:45 pm against Harvard University in the Alumni Athletic Center. Admission is free.