The Christian Science Monitor is sponsoring an essay contest challenging its readers to come up with possible scenarios that could lead to world peace in the next 25 years. Students and faculty at colleges and universities around the country are also invited to participate. Participants might consider such factors as economic conditions, the role of moral leadership and world circumstances. Essays will be judged on the feasibility of the ideas they contain and will be expected to show a knowledge of the framework of international relations in the world today and the process by which these relations are developed. Entries of not more than 3,000 words in English, French, German, or Spanish will be accepted. The best three will be printed in The Christian Science Monitor. Entries should be postmarked not later than December 31, 1984, and sent to: PEACE CONTEST, The Christian Science Monitor, One Norway Street, Boston, MA 02115.
