Sports

Football drops homecoming to top-ranked Worcester St.

(Continued from page 20)

The Tech Photo by Robert Wissig

The MIT Football Cheering Club performs for the crowd at halftime of the homecoming game Saturday.

The team's last home game of the year is today at 3:30 pm against Barrington in Stellofier Stadium.

(Continued from page 20)

goal 8:15 into the second half. Martin-Madden is pleased with her team's performance and progress this year, despite its 3-5-1 record. "The season has been a rebuilding year," she said. "We lost many seniors and many players from last year."

Field hockey tramples Elms

"Although we are a fairly inexperienced team, alot of hard work and patience are starting to pay off," Martin-Madden commented. "The team has started to play together toward the end of the season."

"The players are learning their positions which should provide a good base for the future," she noted, adding that she is looking forward to starting next year at a higher level.

The team's last home game of the year is today at 3:30 pm against Barrington in Stellofier Stadium.

Window Office Available For Upwardly Mobile Young Executive.

A window office like this is waiting for you as a pilot in the Navy. You may fly anything from the latest jets to helicopters. Whatever your window office, it comes with a clear view of a bright future.

As a Navy officer, you get leadership and management responsibility fast. As a Navy pilot, you get all the flight training, navigation and aerodynamics knowledge you need to make that responsibility pay off.

It's a big challenge with big rewards. First of all, you're a Navy pilot. As a Navy officer, you get outstanding benefits package: 30 days' paid vacation earned each year, low-cost life insurance, and many tax-free allowances.

To qualify, you must have a BS or a BA, be 27 or younger, pass aptitude and physical exams, qualify for security clearance and be willing to relocate. U.S. citizenship is required.

To apply for one of our window offices, call: LCDR Jack Halloran, 470 Atlantic Avenue, Boston, MA 02210, (617) 223-5434.

Navy Officers Get Responsibility Fast.