Volleyball squad erases deficit to beat Northeastern

The women's volleyball team improved its record to 33-3 with a 3-2 come-from-behind win over host Northeastern University Wednesday night. The loss was only Northeastern's second in 25 matches.

The win comes on the heels of last weekend's performance in the Illinois Benedictine College Quadrangular in Kilde, Ill., where the Engineers swept host Illinois Benedictine, defending NCAA Division III champion Elmhurst College, and the University of Findlay at Purdy by identical 3-0 scores.

MIT is ranked seventh, nationally, in the latest NCAA Division III coaches poll.
