Reagan on issues

The Reagan administration plans to eliminate all US aid to international organizations that propose abortion as a possible method of birth control in over-populated Third World nations, according to the Republican platform.

The president believes it is through economic opportunity that women will achieve equality; he is an supporter of equal pay, which is "the most important issue," Simonetti said.

The American environment has been an area of weakness in the president's domestic policy. Only six toxic dump sites have been cleaned up with Superfund dollars, out of 750 dumps eligible.Simonetti said there were dis- tinctions within the Institute. The final number of PC/ATs in Athena will be "totally contingent on new products" that IBM has not yet announced, Lerman continued. When it releases the new equipment, Athena will switch from PC/ATs to the more advanced terminals.

The new IBM equipment will consist of advanced workstations with 32-bit processors, high resolution displays, one million bytes of memory, and will run the UNIX operating system.

Living group clusters Athena will continue its plan to put terminals in dormitories and fraternities, Lerman said. "For Athena to be meaningful, it has to be in the living groups."

Lerman added that there will be one terminal for every five to six students at the Institute, when the project is completed. Project Athena will still be completed by 1988, as was originally major cause of this. Even Demo- crats who had criticized the agen- cy said it has been showing new life.
