Maybe we'll cure cancer without your help, but don't bet your life on it.

The way it stands today, our American cancer of four years will someday have cancer. That means we will work some member in one out of three American families. To change that statistics call by changing the way we live to the public in to your life.

The American Cancer Society never give up the fight. But you must find the answers and have them without your help. But that's why the American Cancer Society annual meeting is the focus for understanding and supporting our fight against cancer.
