The Navy operates the most advanced nuclear equipment in the world. America. The men who maintain and operate those reactors have to be the best. That's why officers in the Nuclear Navy get the most extensive and sophisticated training in the world.

College juniors and seniors who qualify for the program can earn over $1000 a month while still in school.

After graduation, as a Navy officer, you receive a year of graduate-level training unavailable anywhere else at any price. You become a highly trained member of an elite group with vital responsibilities and growing career potential.

To qualify, you must be a U.S. citizen between 19 and 27 years of age, working toward or have earned a bachelor's or master's degree. You must also have completed a minimum of one year each of calculus and calculus-based physics with a "B" average or better.

You can submit an application as soon as you've completed your sophomore year in college. If you think you're good enough to join the best in the nuclear field, find out. Call the Naval Management Programs Office for full information.
