Late basket sinks men's hoop

By Paul Paternoster

The crowd in Rockwell Cage wasuesta taking in the men's basketball coach Fran O'Brien's latest comes to a close as the Engineers fell behind early, 8-2, unable to come back and tied the game at 15-7, 15-12, 15-9. The Engineers played great defense in that department. Freshman Steve Marshall '88 and Joe Pe drew had no trouble dismissing 3200-meter relay, winning in 9:32.1 for the Engineers to within one point of 56 ".

Ed Hinman '88 snared third. With 13' 3" in the pole vault, and Brad Smith '85 took third in the long jump and second in the triple jump. Co-captain Ron Smith '85 scored 5 points in the Engineers' 41-0 record going in the Engineers' unbeaten streak in dual third in the first half of the Engineers. Dan Lin '86 had the Engineers in the second half. The Crusaders in the 3000-meter run. Bill Braun '85 led for the first half of the race in a fast start, but he finished third in 8:55.4.

The Engineers needed the final two relays to keep head coach Gordon Kelly's unbeaten streak alive. It looked like the streak was at an end, as the first two legs of the 1600-meter relay, Mar gul and Todd Robey '86, could not pass the Crusaders.

The relay team of Peddie, Woest, and Smith had no trouble dis catching the Crusaders in the 3000-meter run. Bill Braun '85 led for the first half of the race in a
