MIT's indoor track squad gains its first victory at Bowdoin since 1971

(Courtesy of page 20) In a 40-yard dash in 4.7 seconds, Joe Peters was right behind in second place in 4.8 seconds. The Engineers held off the Polar Bears in the intermediate sprint. Mike Hammond ’87 could not catch the leader in the 100-yard dash, and had to settle for second in 10.0 seconds. Charles Pursell ’87 won his heat and placed third with a time of 10.5 seconds.

Dave Richards ’86 had to feed off his challenger from start to finish in capturing the 60-yard dash in 6.6 seconds. Brad Hill ’88 doubled at the 100-yard dash with a time of 11.0 seconds. The two-time runners also had a strong race, as Bill Bruno ’85 and Eugene Tung ’88 charged from behind with less than a quarter of a mile left, in a cat-and-mouse game with a Bowdoin runner, to finish first and second in 3:56.8 and 3:59.9. MIT held back in the two final relays, but still managed to make them close. The mile relay team of Arenberg, Hradnansky, Pudde and Smith was edged out by two-hundredths of a second. Smith’s 2:05.9 second anchor leg, which would have set another meet record in the open 440-yard dash, was not enough to overcome Bowdoin’s lead in the race.

The two-mile relay team of David Schulze ’87, Harris, Calhoun and Himman also stayed close in another nip-and-tuck relay, but Himman’s strong anchor leg was not enough to pass Bowdoin, and MIT lost by 2.1 seconds in 8:40.6.

Coach Gordon Kelly was extremely pleased to break the Bowdoin lead and was a little surprised at the Polar Bears’ relatively poor showing. “It was as if Bowdoin was the visiting team,” Kelly remarked.

The undefeated Engineers are gearing up for the New England Division III Championships Friday and Saturday at the Dartmouth Athletic Center. MIT is looking to avenge its narrow loss to Bowdoin in last year’s championships.

Skelton, Peters win weight classes as MIT wrestling team places third

Two individual first-place finishes, three seconds, and a third-place finish gave the MIT wrestling team their third place in the Northern New England Championships hosted by Plymouth State last weekend.

The Skelton ’85 won the 138-pound class, and Pat Peters ’85 captured the 147-pound crown. Peter Warren ’84 (134), Steve Reza ’85 (150), and Ed Coleman ’87 (177) provided the second-place finishes.

Lowell Cannon ’87 placed third in the heavyweight division and led the tournament with three points.

The wrestlers will end their regular season Friday, when they visit New England College.

Swimmers split against Amherst

The men’s swimming team won 111-1-1 against the visiting men of Amherst, 61-41. They upped the squad’s record to 4-3.

The women, meanwhile, had their four-meet winning streak snapped, losing to the highly-regarded Lord Jeffs, 85-40. Their record is now 6-2.

Squads gain 1, drops 2 in tourney

The squash team hosted a round-robin tournament last weekend, and avert away with a 1-2 record.

The Engineers lost to Bowdoin, 6-3, Friday but came back to defeat Fordham Saturday, 5-4. The squad finished the tournament with a close 5-4 loss to Wesleyan.

Brent Foy ’85 was one of MIT’s major threats, winning all three of his matches. Captain Dave Douglas ’85 and Omar Marrar ’86 each won two of three.

Hockey fails to Conn. College

The men’s hockey team fell to 8-5-5 Saturday with a 5-4 overtime loss to visiting Conn. College. The Engineers held a 4-1 lead going into the third period, but the Camels scored the next two goals to gain the victory.

Women’s hoop drops to 10-9

The women’s basketball team dropped to 10-9 with a 71-43 loss to host Connecticut College Saturday. The squad needs to win its four-meet winning streak to defeat Fordham. Saturday, 5-4.
