By Charles R. Jankowski

The Class of 1993 elected Ingre Gedo president in yesterday's elections, but Robin L. Barker, who also ran for the position, officially protested the vote count, according to Daniel J. O'Day '86, Undergraduate Association (UUA) election commissioner.

Gedo received 139 of 345 total votes cast in the fourth round of preferential balloting. Barker received 123 votes. Robert E. Malchman '86 and Noodle M. Merritt were eliminated in the initial rounds of balloting.

Alejandro Mendoza received 270 votes as the only class of '93 vice-presidential candidate.

Stephanie L. Schroeder, current UAP, defeated Albert Y. Wang in the race for secretary of class of '85. Schroeder received 118 votes in the final balloting round, while Wang received 131. The third candidate for secretary, Diane M. Hess, was eliminated in the initial round of balloting.

Adrian C. Wang received 96 votes for treasurer of the class of '85, defeating current UAP David M. Libby, who received 65 votes. Libby is also officially protesting the election.

A total of 274 juniors voted in the elections for class of '86 officers, who will become treasurer and secretary, respectively.

The Class of 1987 reelected Grace W. Ung president. She received 125 total votes, while Dave U. Baker, who also ran for the position, received 106 votes. Libby said there was no serious protest for secretary.

Michael J. Franklin was elected president of the class of 1988, gaining 135 of 397 total votes cast. Libby said there were no serious protests.

Charles R. Jankowski

The Class of 1987 reelected Grace W. Ung president. She received 125 total votes, while Dave U. Baker, who also ran for the position, received 106 votes. Libby said there was no serious protest for secretary.

Michael J. Franklin was elected president of the class of 1988, gaining 135 of 397 total votes cast. Libby said there were no serious protests.

Charles R. Jankowski

The Class of 1987 reelected Grace W. Ung president. She received 125 total votes, while Dave U. Baker, who also ran for the position, received 106 votes. Libby said there was no serious protest for secretary.

Michael J. Franklin was elected president of the class of 1988, gaining 135 of 397 total votes cast. Libby said there were no serious protests.

Charles R. Jankowski