Black Rose Lectures will present a poetry reading by anarchist poet Phillip Levine. Phillip Levine is a professor at Tufts University and a visiting professor at Brown University. His books include "Seven Years from Somewhere," "Ashes: Poems Old and New," and "Names of the Lost." A new book, "Sweet Music," will be published this year. The reading will take place at MIT (105 Main St., Cambridge in 9-15), beginning at 8 p.m. Admission is free and all are welcome in attendance.

Saturday, March 16

Sunday, March 17

Ninth Annual Israel Folkdance Festival of Boston. The festival will be held at 3 p.m in Kresge Auditorium. Tickets are sold on a reserve basis and may be obtained through MIT HUB 3-2892 or the New York Tides Dance Company. Door tickets are $7, $6, and $4 with a $1 discount for seniors.

COMING TO M.I.T.

March 20 & 21

Vitesse Electronics Corp.

Vitesse Electronics Corp., a newly formed, rapidly expanding electronics firm, will be designing and building control systems which incorporate both silicon and gallium arsenide integrated circuit components.

Our 60,000 square foot new facility is located in Southern California's suburban Ventura County, 50 miles northwest of Los Angeles.

Vitesse's goal is to be a leading manufacturer of high speed electronics products within six years. Our current team has strong backgrounds in the fields of software, hardware, sales, management, device physics and integrated circuit fabrication.

We are looking for energetic team members, with a new book and business acumen who enjoy working with talented individuals. Those with a new book and business acumen who enjoy working with talented individuals.

Vitesse offers the chance to work with talented team members, with a new book and business acumen who enjoy working with talented individuals.

An Equal Opportunity Employer

741 Calle Plano
Camarillo, California 93010
(805) 3883700

FRIDAY, MARCH 15, 1985

The Tech

The Art of Telling

Essays on Fiction

By F. Sewall

"The Art of Telling" is a brilliant and well-articulated presentation of novelist's arguments about how to read a narrative... There can be no doubt that he is one of our best critics.

-J. Hillis Miller

$10 paper