Group to include 5 from faculty, 2 students

(Continued from page 1)

PAGE 2 THE TECH
MAY 12, 1980

To serve on the committee and that the group has sufficient resources to support a research staff.

They also agreed that committee members should represent a broad spectrum of political views to prevent a biased analysis of the data they collect.

Similarly, a subgroup of the convigers has developed a list of potential agenda for the committee:

IFC has 5 committees

(Continued from page 1)

prevail by the general member,

IFC relations with the ODSA are generally good, Anderson said. 'I'd be dishonest to say that we never disagree' with the ODSA' he said, 'but generally we work together well.

The Expansion Committee assists local clubs who want to affiliate with national organizations in order to become MIT-recognized living groups. Most recently, the committee helped Club Amherst join the national Alpha Alpha fraternity.

The committee is not directly involved with finding houses for new groups. It does emphasize the responsibility of the administration, especially the Planning Office and the Office of the Vice President, to take action on behalf of existing and potential ILGs.

The Rush Committee has one of the most important responsibilities of the IFC. It must establish a fair and unbiased policy for all members. The committee is also involved in organizing pre-pitchic discussion groups for new students and emphasizing the importance of a good summer rudy.

The Judicial Committee handles disputes within the IFC and with the ODSA. This committee is most visible, and most influential, during Residence/Orientation Week, when it is responsi-able for enforcing the regulations set forth by the Rush Committee.

Despite the emphasis placed on this task, the Judicial Committee is visible throughout the academic year. Sherwood said. Whenever a student or a living group feels that their rights have been violated, they may file a complaint with the committee, he added.

The committee may review cases either solely or jointly with the Dean's Office. The committee is authorized to fine a living group up to $500. sentence it to conditional or unconditional IFC probation, or recommend to the ODSA the suspension of Rush privileges and/or the removal of the offending group from the rules imposed by military research have on the choice of research done at MIT?

- What effect does the increase in military R&D have on MIT graduates? Are more of them working on defense-related projects?

- Is there active recruitment for careers in military-related companies? Is the nature of the employment clearly stated to perspective employers? Is there any relation between employment in military-related work and research done while at MIT?

- What is the impact of Reserve Officers Training Corps (ROTC) on campus? Are the number of ROTC students increasing? Does ROTC affect a student's choice of major?

- What should the Institute do with the results of the study?

The committee shall report all of its findings to the faculty.

Kostiakowsky and several other members of the MIT community repeated their proposal at the March 26 faculty meeting. Kisti-akowsky's letter was signed by over 50 faculty members.

An ad hoc student coalition, composed in part by MIT Student Pugwash and the MIT Ba-armament Study Group, of which Wagner is a member, sent a letter to Smith supporting the establishment of the committee.

The coalition gathered 283 sigatures over three days in favor of the proposed group.

CUNARD

A MAGICAL FUN-FILLED ADVENTURE UNLIKE ANY YOU HAVE EVER SEEN.

A crafty young pickpocket strolls his way out of a tyrant's dungeon and plunges into an adventure beyond even his own wildest imaginings.
And the strangest notion of all was that he was about to become a hero.

Thirty deposit is required with your request. For details, see your travel agent or write: Cunard, P.O. Box 2933, Grand Central Station, New York, N.Y. 10016.

THE QUEEN ELIZABETH 2
British Registry

OPENES FRIDAY APRIL 12
AT A THEATRE NEAR YOU!