Metropolitan Opera

The Tech is pleased to announce that discount tickets will be available for the Metropolitan Opera tour visit to the Boston Center. Tickets, reduced up to $30, will be available in the MIT community for the following performances:

- Saturday, April 13
  - Trumpeter Richard Given, violinist Ellen Gove, and pianist Karen Kauer will be in Krieger Auditorium at 8pm tonight to perform works by S. Gave, C. P. Hinde.

- Saturday, April 20
  - Violinist Kenneth Slowik will play Mozart’s Piano Concerto No. 24 with the Boston Symphony Orchestra this evening at 8:00. The concert, conducted by Charles Dutoit, will also include Stravinsky's Petrushka. LSC will be showing Diva tonight at 7:30 and 10pm in 26-100.

Boston Chamber Music Society

Tickets will be available for the April 21 concert of the Boston Chamber Music Society at the special MIT price of $3.00 per ticket (there will be no general admission). Tickets will also be placed in Student Union (Tuesday through Friday, at 8pm), will include Mozart's Violin Concerto, and will be sold at the SFAO.

- Sunday, April 14

Peter Serka will be giving an all-Irish evening in Jordan Hall at 3pm. Call 534-2412 for info. Make-up 9:30 and 2:15 in 26-100.

American Repertory Theatre/New Stages

- Friday, April 18
  - Discount tickets are also on sale for the American Repertory Theatre/New Stages series at the Playhouse Theatre, 12 Holyoke St. Harvard Square. Tickets priced at $5 will be available to the MIT Community for the following performances.

  - May 18, 19, and 21 at 8pm
    - Giselle by William Hauptman on April 21 at 2pm.
    - Captor by Ken Friedman on April 14 at 2pm and on April 14, 18, and 21 at 8pm.

Tickets for the Metropolitan Opera, Boston Chamber Music Society and American Repertory Theatre are on sale by courtesy of the Technology Community Association. Drop by Room W20-426 in the Student Center, or call 253-4883.

The Tech Arts department. Reporting on all the Arts in the Boston area.

And now providing for discounted admission too.