World

South African rebel says divestment movement is working — Oliver Tambo, president of South Africa's outlawed African National Congress, said the campaign for divestment is helping to turn the tide against apartheid in his country. Armed uprisings by black South Africans against the white government are also gaining momentum, he said. "The white South African regime is becoming more demoralized."

Nation

Rebels stage mock walkout from House — GOP congressmen hold a symbolic walkout yesterday after the House, dominated by Democrats, voted to declare Franklin D. Roosevelt the winner of Indiana's 8th District congressional race. McCloskey won his district by only four votes, making his the closest House race in history — The only previous exodus from the House occurred during Reconstruction, after a black Republican in Congress.

Sports

Red Sox continue to lose — The Red Sox extended their winning streak to five games with a loss to the Seattle Mariners, 7-0. Since winning their first four games at Fenway, the Sox are 5-12, have been outscored 79-57.

Weather

Massachusetts just does not compare to the Midwest — Sunshine may return this afternoon, but it will be only fair through Monday, with highs in the 50s and lows down to 30.

---

World

Eritrean government ousted victims from camp — The Eritrean government is taking immediate steps to rectify the situation. The Eritrean government to take immediate steps to rectify the situation. IM. Peter McPherson, director of the Agency for International Development, said that the action amounted to imposing a "death sentence" on half of those ousted from the camp.

Guerillas smite in Thai-Cambodian border — Thailand-Vietnamese troops and Cambodian guerrillas fought over three hours Wednesday, with both sides suffering heavy casualties, according to the military reports. More than 10 Vietnamese were killed or wounded, and the Khmer Rouge guerrillas suffered at many casualties.

Nation

Democrats walk out to protest the allegedly fraudulent seating arrangements for the position of Admissions Counselor. The students were later arraigned on trespassing charges. The sit-in followed a noon rally where 200 students demanded the immediate sale of university-held stock in companies that violate a trustee policy of divestment.

Sports

The Red Sox extended their losing streak to five games with a loss to the Seattle Mariners, 7-0. Since winning their first four games at Fenway, the Sox are 5-12, have been outscored 79-57.

---

Weather

Massachusetts just does not compare to the Midwest — Sunshine may return this afternoon, but it will be only fair through Monday, with highs in the 50s and lows down to 30.

---

World

South African rebel says divestment movement is working — Oliver Tambo, president of South Africa's outlawed African National Congress, said the campaign for divestment is helping to turn the tide against apartheid in his country. Armed uprisings by black South Africans against the white government are also gaining momentum, he said. "The white South African regime is becoming more demoralized."

Nation

Rebels stage mock walkout from House — GOP congressmen hold a symbolic walkout yesterday after the House, dominated by Democrats, voted to declare Franklin D. Roosevelt the winner of Indiana's 8th District congressional race. McCloskey won his district by only four votes, making his the closest House race in history — The only previous exodus from the House occurred during Reconstruction, after a black Republican in Congress.

Sports

Red Sox continue to lose — The Red Sox extended their winning streak to five games with a loss to the Seattle Mariners, 7-0. Since winning their first four games at Fenway, the Sox are 5-12, have been outscored 79-57.

---

Weather

Massachusetts just does not compare to the Midwest — Sunshine may return this afternoon, but it will be only fair through Monday, with highs in the 50s and lows down to 30. Edward Whang