Gray excluded from letter to the Senate

In the second week of July, presidents of Ivy League colleges and twelve other schools of high reputation wrote letters urging United States President Ronald Reagan and Minority Leader Robert Dole and Majority Leader Robert Byrd urging United States Senator Majority Leader Robert J. Dole and Senator Minority Leader Robert C. Byrd urging United States sanctions against South Africa.