Crowding problems expected; Sherwood asks frats to crowd

By Katie Schwarz

Up to 200 new undergraduates will live in crowded dormitory rooms this fall, according to AssociateDean for Student Affiars Robert A. Sherwood. Two hundred rooms, on which work began this spring, will be completed by then, he said. The Dormitory Office has recommended purchase of a new telephone system to permit students to rent an "outside line" rented system will not be received until January of 1987, according to Sherwood, the office director. The new system will be installed in the summer of 1987, according to Sherwood, the office director.

At the heart of the problem is the difficulty in finding sufficient faculty to live on campus. The Dormitory Office has recommended purchase of a new telephone system to permit students to rent an "outside line" rented system will not be received until January of 1987, according to Sherwood, the office director. The new system will be installed in the summer of 1987, according to Sherwood, the office director.

The Dormitory Office has recommended purchase of a new telephone system to permit students to rent an "outside line" rented system will not be received until January of 1987, according to Sherwood, the office director. The new system will be installed in the summer of 1987, according to Sherwood, the office director.

The Dormitory Office has recommended purchase of a new telephone system to permit students to rent an "outside line" rented system will not be received until January of 1987, according to Sherwood, the office director. The new system will be installed in the summer of 1987, according to Sherwood, the office director. Overcrowding problems expected; Sherwood asks frats to crowd