opinion

Column/Thomas T. Huang

Different angles: reflecting on the moods of Rush Week

With only a farmers' politicalness, some books by Bellow and Roth and my Bible gone to me, I arrived at the Institute, eager as a freshman should be, but not so eager that I should become a black sheep among the flock of sheltered students milling around the Student Center.

"No, no, no," said Bein with a grim face. "No, for the sake of me, won't you read a column about my experiences with rush week in 1982.

In the long run, we must all work together to try to resolve our overcrowded dormitory conditions. There are no simple solutions. Reducing the freshman class size will have the effect of reducing overall tuition income and could result in artificially higher tuition increases for the rest of the student body. There is no gift capital with which to build dormitories. The obvious option would be to do what many other universities do; that is, to no longer guarantee eight terms of housing for undergraduates, or no longer require guarantee housing for students.

The Tech

ROSH HASHANA SERVICES
5746/1985

REFORM (Chapel)
Sunday, September 15, 8:00 pm
Monday, September 16, 10:00 am

CONSERVATIVE (Suf. Ctr. Sala de Puerto Rico)
Sunday, September 15, 8:30 pm
Monday, September 16, 8:30 am & 6:30 pm
Tuesday, September 17, 8:30 am & 6:30 pm

ORTHODOX (Studeat Ctr. Mezzanine Lounge)
Sunday, September 15, 6:30 pm
Monday, September 16, 6:30 am & 6:30 pm
Tuesday, September 17, 6:30 am & 6:30 pm

Talents will be required for all Sunday services. Participants will pick topics to talk on:        12:45-1:00, in Session, 10:15-10:30, in Session. Additional songs are encouraged. Monday and Tuesday: 10:30 Pre-Shabbos services are required by Thursday, September 12.

This space donated by The Tech

SPOONEREDBYMITHULLES,112MEMORIALDRIVE,215-2802

This space donated by The Tech

What you need in a good editor... RED PENCIL SERVICES

The editing of your book, manuscript, or thesis by a professional editor...

(617) 876-4157
78a Tremont St.
Inman Square

Come join us PILGRIM CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
35 MAGAZINE ST. CAMBRIDGE
Sunday Worship: 10:45am

Small, Evangelical Neighborhood Church With Strong Student Involvement

(4 blocks from Central Sq., 2/3 mile from MIT)