drawn professionalism.

There is little possibility of alleviating the current crowding by reducing the class size because the administration is unwilling to face the consequent loss of tuition revenue, Sherwood said. As a result, he will ask for a review of the Institute's guarantee of eight terms of housing to undergraduates.

The policy will be examined by Sherwood, President Paul E.
Gray '34, Dean for Student Af-tairs Shirley M. McBay, the dormitory housemamsters and the Faculty Committee on Student Af-airs, he continued.

Number overshot targets

The Office of the Dean for Student Affairs (ODSA) was not able to determine the actual numer of upperclassmen returning to the dormitories this fall until confirmation cards were due on April 22.
