Listings

Student activities, administrative offices, academic departments, and other groups — both on and off the MIT campus — can list meetings, activities, and other announcements in The Tech's "Notices" section. Send items of interest (typed and double spaced) to: "Notices, The Tech, room W20-483." or via US mail to "Notices, The Tech, PO Box 29, MA 02139." Notes run on a space-available basis only; prior notice is given to announce announcements and MIT students' activities. The Tech reserves the right to edit all listings, and makes no endorsement of groups or activities listed.

Thursday, Sept. 12

Dr. Gray will hold his first open office hour of the term on Thursday, September 12, from 3:00 to 5:00.

Any member of the MIT community may schedule a fifteen-minute appointment on a first-come, first-served basis by calling extension 13-4646 or by stopping at the reception area in Room 5-208. Appointments will be available on a first-come, first-served basis by calling 735-4767 for details.

The Project for American Israeli Research, Inc., a non-profit organization, is currently recruiting students from Boston area universities to perform research looking for Israeli businesses, government offices, academic and cultural institutions. Research projects will be available in May, and will be accepted only on the day of the open office hours.

The project seeks to strengthen the relationship of American students to Israel and contribute to Israel's economic growth by enabling students to discover their skills as researchers. Students may arrange to receive academic credit for projects. Projects may lead to thesis work, internships, or full employment in Israel.

Inquiries are invited in writing or by telephone to Professor Murray Fromson, Director, Project for Israeli-American Research, Inc., 479 Stato Office Building, Boston MA 02116, (617) 423-7951.

Getting High? or Getting Desease? If drugs are becoming a problem, Narcotics Anonymous, 569-6792, PO Box 142, New Town Branch, Boston 02228, can assist you in finding a recovery program.

M.I.T.'s fourteen libraries will be more open to students and undergaduate students. For more information, contact Dr. Kaufmann at 784-5325.

The Cambridge Dispute Settlement Center has announced that it is making its service of mediating disputes available to roommates in the Cambridge area. Those interested in using CDS's service to resolve a roommate dispute or any other dispute should contact the mediation center at 784-5276.

Episcopalians and Lutherans

The Laywer and Episcopalian Coalition welcome you to M.I.T.

We invite you to a reception Wednesday, September 11
