... if we respect their analysis. McCormick Hall,” concerning the large concentration of Alpha Phi in that dormitory. “In the past, the [insitute] has never wanted us to group together in a dormitory,” Vance said. MIT “hasn’t been willing to let us group together at all.”

“I don’t think, in terms of public relations with people in Bexley,” that Alpha Phi’s acquisition of Bexley would be acceptable, Vance said. “I don’t know about other people. I’m sure a lot would be said on both sides.”

Meet

James R. Killian, Jr.

James R. Killian, Jr. will be at the Tech Coop on Friday, September 20th from 130 to 230 to autograph copies of his book THE EDUCATION OF A COLLEGE PRESIDENT: A Memoir. Associated with M.I.T. for sixty years, as student, editor, administrative officer, president from 1948 to 1969 and as chairman of the Corporation, Killian’s memoir is a personal account of an unusual career of one of the world’s leading science-based universities as well as his life in the public sector – as the nation’s first full-time presidential science advisor at a time when NASA and our national space program were created and Eisenhower began initial efforts to ban atmospheric nuclear tests and encourage disarmament.

The Education of a College President $19.95
