Soviet plan would increase first strike capability — National Security Affairs Adviser Robert C. McFarlane said the Soviet plan for a 50 percent cut in nuclear warheads would increase Soviet first strike capability. He did say, however, that the plan is a constructive start for further arms talks.

US proposes "lending pool" at meeting of World Bank — The United States urged for the creation of an increased lending fund for the Third World countries at the meeting held Saturday in Seoul, South Korea. Secretary of Treasury James A. Baker III would do so using existing monetary resources.

Baker confidently told the conference that the US-led recovery has helped improve the world economy. But the debtor nations disagreed, reporting stagnating economic growth, increasing trade restrictions and falling commodity trading that have cut off large markets. The US plans to introduce a new initiative on the world debt crisis when the meeting formally opens today.
