World

Guns steal impressionist paintings — Five gunmen entered the Marmottan Museum on Sunday, 21st, and stole major impressionist paintings. The paintings entered at 7:45 AM. The event took place in Paris, France. The paintings, including Claude Monet’s “Impression, Sunrise” and Pierre August Renoir’s “Bathers,” were valued at at least $125 million.

Israel's attack on Palestinian bases — Israel reported successful attacks on Palestinian bases in eastern Lebanon Sunday. The planes returned safely and no casualties were reported.

Bofa grants extended powers in Cape Town — South African Prime Minister Botha declared powers of arrest, detention, and interrogation to military and police authorities. Since Friday, two cars have been fired on for 15 minutes.

Australian army purchases protection — The Australian army recently purchased 541,000 condoms to prevent the spread of HIV.

Nation

UAW strike against Chrysler ends — 70,000 UAW workers ratified a new contract with the Chrysler Corporation Sunday ending a twelve day strike. The new three contract includes a $2102 bonus and pay increases.

Woman granted “right to die” — A New Jersey Supreme Court decision authorizing euthanasia is being praised by the patient's approval, and “trustworthiness” evidence that nothing further could be done.

Amtrack stops trains to change time — Amtrack trains across the country stopped to let standard time catch up to them. Passengers simply had to wait an hour until Amtrack started moving again. "Next stop, Twilight Zone," Amtrack's R. Clifford Arnold said. Amtrack has followed this procedure since 1971.

Princeton demolishes Harvard — Princeton defeated Harvard Saturday 11-6. The game was won by a 65-year-old woman in a Cedar Grove nursing home. The woman's name is Andrews Hendrickson.

Sports

Royals win World Series — The Kansas City Royals routed the St. Louis Cardinals 11-0 Sunday to win the World Series. Over the seven game series, the Royals pitching staff held the Cardinals to a record low batting average. The Royals were also the first team in World Series history to lose the first two games and still win the series.

Peoria wins second New York Marathon — Italian runner Orlando Pizzolato breezed through the New York Marathon Sunday in 2 hours, 23 minutes, and 45 seconds to win the second marathon victory in two years.

Princeton demolishes Harvard — The Tigers beat the Harvard Crimson Saturday 11-6. The game was won by a 65-year-old woman in a Cedar Grove nursing home. The woman's name is Andrews Hendrickson.

Weather

The weather forecast for the day is looking clear. It will be sunny, but cold, with a chilly wind. Highs should be around 46-50. It will be a clear and freezing night, with lows from 22-32. Tomorrow will be warmer, with expected temperatures from 38-54.

Next school?

Think about the time and energy spent educating yourself. Now you have to apply your new skills and continue to learn. BBN has plenty of fascinating projects to challenge you, not only stretch the surface of your technical knowledge. And we surround you with people who love to stretch the limits of your creativity. We provide a stimulating experience, colleagueship, and liberal tuition assistance too. Come contribute and learn from what we do here.

We are interviewing at MIT November 1.

Bolt Beranek and Newman Inc.
1 Memorial Drive, Cambridge, MA 02139
We are an equal opportunity employer, male or female.