You can't come home again
Offense still out of town as Bentley whitewashes Beavers 22-0

Hugh Ekberg '88 plows through Bentley College defense in Saturday's Homecoming game. Despite a large, enthusiastic crowd of fans, the Engineers were defeated 22-0.

By Jerome Braunsstein

An estimated crowd of 1000 people witnessed the MIT Beavers lose their homecoming game 22-0 to the Bentley College Falcons in Steinbrenner Stadium Saturday.

"We played our worst game of the year," said an upset Dwight Smith, MIT head coach. Bentley Coach Peter Yetten earned his defensive line wasn't getting off the field.

"We played our worst game of the season," said defensive co-captain Nicholas S. Nowak '86. Defensive co-captain Larry S. Monroe O explained that the team "considered itself" to have a good running defense, but they still moved the ball. The defensive line wasn't getting off the field.

First down yardage
Bentley 11 - 4 - 11 - 3 - 0
MIT 4 - 11 - 6 - 4 - 0

Passing
Bentley 52-96-1, MiT 5-11-0

Rushing
Bentley 198 - 46 - 0
MIT 220 - 13 - 0

Scoring
Bentley 30, MIT 0

The Beavers play their last home game of the season against UMass-Boston at 1 pm Saturday. There are two games left in the season, and the Beavers need to win both to avoid a losing record.

Erratum
Due to an editing error, a subscription coupon on Friday carried the incorrect prices. The correct prices are:
- First Class: $15 for two years, $7 for one year.
- Third Class: $8 for two years, $4 for one year.
- Foreign — Canada/Mexico via air mail: $30 for one year.
- Overseas via surface mail: $18 for one year.

Subscription rates:
- First Class: $15 for two years, $7 for one year.
- Third Class: $8 for two years, $4 for one year.
- Foreign — Canada/Mexico via air mail: $30 for one year.
- Overseas via surface mail: $18 for one year.

Prepayment is required.