Friday, November 22

The Deutscher Werkstatte of MIT presents its performance of Leopold's Leben des Galilei (7:30pm tonight, in Kresge Little Theatre). Other foreign fare tonight in the Mezzanine Lounge of the Student Center, where the MIT Violins will present a cello recital. Admission is requested.

---

Saturday, November 23

The Institute of Contemporary Art presents the film Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring, 7:30pm in 26-250, and 9:30pm in 26-100, respectively.

---

Sunday, November 24

Michael Ros

The Choralia will perform in 34-101 at 7:30 pm tonight 34-101.

LSC shows Woody Allen's Purple Rose, beginning at 26-250 at 7:30pm, and 34-101 at 9:30pm.

Cat People is shown by the Student Center Committee in Lobdell, 11pm. Admission free.

---

Jephtha — compelling psychological drama

Jephtha’s performances in Boston,Nov. 20, The British rock group of the same name will perform at the Orpheum in Boston on December 1. The concert features the popular British hit “Paint It Black.”

---

Jephtha — painting by Sir John Millan

---

Adam Ant — No more bug

Adam Ant was a rock musician, singer, songwriter, and actor. He was known for his distinctive look, which included colorful wigs, sequined suits, and stage personas. His songs often featured themes of romance, fantasy, and personal freedom. He was a significant figure in the new wave and glam rock scenes of the late 1970s and early 1980s. His music, characterized by its theatricality and theatrical costumes, was a reflection of his bold personality and his love for the stage. His performances were energetic and visually striking, with Ant often wearing elaborate costumes and using props and effects to enhance the theatricality of his act. His songs, which were often about love, loss, and personal freedom, resonated with a generation of fans who had grown up with the cultural shifts of the 1960s and early 1970s. Ant's influence on later musicians, such as Madonna and Boy George, was significant, and he remains a cult figure in the world of rock music.

---

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1985 The Tech PAGE 15

ARTS

---

ARTS

---

Arts On the Town

---

The Choralia will perform in 34-101 at 7:30 pm tonight 34-101.

LSC shows Woody Allen’s Purple Rose, beginning at 26-250 at 7:30pm, and 34-101 at 9:30pm.

Cat People is shown by the Student Center Committee in Lobdell, 11pm. Admission free.

---

Sunday, November 24

Michael Ros

The Choralia will perform in 34-101 at 7:30 pm tonight 34-101.

LSC shows Woody Allen’s Purple Rose, beginning at 26-250 at 7:30pm, and 34-101 at 9:30pm.

Cat People is shown by the Student Center Committee in Lobdell, 11pm. Admission free.