Three schools divest their South African holdings after protests

By Earl C. Yee

Second in a series examining the problems at other colleges. Today's article focuses in depth on the situation at the State University of New York.

Richard Yee was one of the SUNY students who called for divestment from South Africa.

The Board of Trustees of the State University of New York (SUNY) voted 7-4 on Sept. 24 to remove the entire SUNY system from the South African Investment Ban.

Richardson: I will now try to divest for the South African Education Committee.

The Board of Trustees of the State University of New York (SUNY) voted 7-4 on Sept. 24 to remove the entire SUNY system from the South African Investment Ban.

Three schools divest their South African holdings after protests

By Earl C. Yee

Second in a series examining the problems at other colleges. Today's article focuses in depth on the situation at the State University of New York.

Richard Yee was one of the SUNY students who called for divestment from South Africa.

The Board of Trustees of the State University of New York (SUNY) voted 7-4 on Sept. 24 to remove the entire SUNY system from the South African Investment Ban.

Richardson: I will now try to divest for the South African Education Committee.

The Board of Trustees of the State University of New York (SUNY) voted 7-4 on Sept. 24 to remove the entire SUNY system from the South African Investment Ban.

Three schools divest their South African holdings after protests

By Earl C. Yee

Second in a series examining the problems at other colleges. Today's article focuses in depth on the situation at the State University of New York.

Richard Yee was one of the SUNY students who called for divestment from South Africa.

The Board of Trustees of the State University of New York (SUNY) voted 7-4 on Sept. 24 to remove the entire SUNY system from the South African Investment Ban.

Richardson: I will now try to divest for the South African Education Committee.

The Board of Trustees of the State University of New York (SUNY) voted 7-4 on Sept. 24 to remove the entire SUNY system from the South African Investment Ban.

Three schools divest their South African holdings after protests

By Earl C. Yee

Second in a series examining the problems at other colleges. Today's article focuses in depth on the situation at the State University of New York.

Richard Yee was one of the SUNY students who called for divestment from South Africa.

The Board of Trustees of the State University of New York (SUNY) voted 7-4 on Sept. 24 to remove the entire SUNY system from the South African Investment Ban.

Richardson: I will now try to divest for the South African Education Committee.

The Board of Trustees of the State University of New York (SUNY) voted 7-4 on Sept. 24 to remove the entire SUNY system from the South African Investment Ban.