LEARN TO SAVE A LIFE.

If your job calls for emergency medical skills, or if you would like to be prepared for emergencies, you should look into Northeastern's Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) program. The course provides comprehensive training in the classroom with a minimum of 16 hours of emergency room observation. Nineteen quarter-hour (through University College). Classes are held twice a week, mornings or evenings, for 12 weeks. BOSTON Campuses begin week of January 6, 1986. For more information, call (617) 329-8000.
